Enos spoke to the longshoremen at the wharf where the Virginian is berthed. At both of these meetings the speakers were given enthusiastic welcome.

CANDIDATE FOR HOUSE HAS A GOOD RECORD

John K. Kamanouu, candidate for the house of representatives from the Fourth district, has a good record upon which to ask the voters for their support. Kamanouu was born in Kewalo, Honolulu, August 28, 1867, was educated at the Royal school, and learned the printer's trade, which he has followed steadily for a number of years with success, having worked in most of the local shops. He has served two terms in the house, those of 1909 and 1911, both times making a good record in supporting wise legislation. He is now seeking his third term on the Republican ticket.

WELL RECEIVED DOWN AT AIEA

Republican campaigners went down to Aiea last night and were greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience, the meeting being held in front of the plantation store. The Aiea musicians turned out in force to supply the necessary musical harmony.

J. M. Dowsett, George Renton and Col. Parker made pronounced hits.

Col. Parker created laughter when he said that Mayor Fern had agreed to step aside, by nodding his head, when asked to lay low for the next two years, in order to give Parker a chance to be the next Mayor of Honolulu.

Dowsett made a strong appeal to the electorate to vote the straight Republican ticket. He praised the good work of Prince Kuhio, Delegate to Congress, and urged the electorate to vote for him and his running mates. Frequently he was interrupted by applause.

As he progressed, he touched upon woman's suffrage and was greeted with applause from the ladies present.

U. H. Jones, candidate for representative, advocated free fisheries and urged upon the voters to support the straight Republican ticket.

Chas. Kaneoka referred the electorate to his past record in the Legislature.

At the corner of Fort and School streets last night a good-sized crowd of voters listened to the Republican candidates attentively. C. L. Crabbe presided at this meeting.

NEW PILIKIA FOR NOMINEES

Hilo, October 15.-New pilikia for legislative aspirants from the Big Island has developed, with the result that the nomination of several Home Rule and Independent candidates for the House is in doubt and Territorial Secretary E. A. Mott-Smith has again been appealed to. Despite the fact that the law providing the method in which nominations shall be filed appears to be a very simple one, easily understood, these candidates, who are supposed to be more than ordinary intelligent and astute in matters relating to the law, have failed to live up to the letter of the statute, and it may take another ruling of the Attorney General to determine whether they may now enter the lists as actual candidates at the coming election.

The law says that each candidate shall have the signature of twenty-five registered voters attached to his nomination paper. In reviewing those filed here before sending them to the Territorial Secretary's office, County Clerk Kal has found that in a number of cases those signing the lists are not qualified, registered voters.

In several cases the candidates obtained only twenty-five signatures so that if some of the signers are proved not to be voters, the nomination may be declared invalid. Other candidates secured more than the required number of signers, and after the unqualified voters are checked off their lists, many are found to have barely enough legal signers to make their nomination valid.

In the former class are found to be Henry Mallo, Home Rule candidate from Kona, who is found to have only twenty-one perfect signatures; Solomon Burke, Home Ruler from Hamakua has only nineteen; Ben Ah Leong Home Ruler from Hilo, has only twenty-one; Pelenni Mahi, Independent candidate from Hamakua has only twenty.

Among those who presented more than the required number of signatures, and after having the doubtful signatures scratched, retain a barely sufficient number to make certain of their nomination, are Manuel C. de Mello, candidate for the house from Kona, Samuel Iltree and M. H. Makela of Kona; J. W. Moanalis and Evangelino da Silva, of Hilo.

In some cases the doubt of the signer's qualification arises through the fact that although the voter had registered, his signature on the candidate's petition either was not spelled in the same way as on the nomination paper, or his initials were not the same of both lists, or he had neglected to use both initials on the one after using more than one on the other.

County Attorney Beers is inclined to believe that the ruling on these cases should be governed largely by the nature of the error. Where only the middle initial has been omitted, he thinks the error should be overlooked, but where the error is of such consequence that the identity of the signer is in doubt, the name should be disqualified.

REGISTRATION FIGURES

The total number of registrations for the city and county of Honolulu is 7924. Tuesday at midnight the figures available showed a total of 7982, but these figures included the number of voters who had died since the register opened and the number of those who asked for transfers, bringing the final figures of the registration down.

The precincts having the largest number of registered voters in their districts are the Ninth of the Fourth and the Ninth of the Fifth. Kaimuki precinct shows the largest gain for the Fourth, and in the number of voters added to the register over the 1910 totals, the Palama fire station taking first place in the Fifth. Some of the precincts have lost some of their resident voters, including three in the Fourth district and seven in the Fifth district. One precinct in the Fourth and two in the Fifth succeeded

POLITICAL NOTES

Shortage of Democratic funds. It is claimed, will prevent the Bourbons from hiring many runners in this campaign. The Republicans started out their runners two weeks ago.

Rent autos promise to do a good business during the campaign. The Republicans are said to be offering $40 per machine on election day, as against $35, the Democratic bid.

Chairman Bertram Rivenburgh of the Democratic county committee, is holding down the Mayor's office in the absence of His Honor, who is campaigning on the windward side of the island today.

Democratic meetings last night were held at Liliha and School streets and at Atkinson Park, Kaaka. Most of the Democratic county and legislative candidates were out speaking, the "banana and mosquito" campaign again being a favorite topic.

The Democratic candidates on the county ticket started today on a campaigning trip around the island, and will not return until Saturday. Most of the county candidates are included in the auto party, although John Markham and C. F. Paukes are on a jury and Attorney Lightfoot is trying a murder case in court.

The Republican meeting last night at Fort and School streets was largely attended and several of the Republican candidates made telling speeches. Col. Sam Parker, candidate for mayor, referred to his Democratic rival by his usual appellation of "Cousin Joe" and cracked several campaign jokes. George F. Renton spoke for progressive government.

Fuller information as to the nomination papers of C. P. Paukes and A. J. Wirtz, Democratic candidates for senator from the third senatorial district, is expected to show that they have the necessary number of valid signatures on their petition. As stated by the Star-Bulletin in printing the original story yesterday, the names had not been entirely checked over by the Great Register.

ed in keeping their list of voters intact, neither gaining or losing any of their voters.

NEW YORK'S TALLEST SKYSCRAPERS

America is pre-eminently the land of the skyscrapers, and New York their especial location, though Chicago is coming well to the front as a competitor. In no other spot in the world is space at such a premium as in New York. The land area is so small for the population and for the amount of business to be done that the real estate value is enormous, hence space must be utilized, and as a result we have the skyscrapers.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance building, on the southeast corner of Madison square at 23rd street, held supremacy in height till the erection of the Woolworth building. This huge campanile is 700 feet 3 inches high, and has fifty stories, with two acres more of floor space than the latest marvel. The Singer building at the corner of Broadway and Liberty street has a total height from the basement floor to base of flagstaff of 742 feet, the height from the street to the main roof being 612 feet 1 inch. It has 41 stories and nine and one-half acres of floor space. The Bankers Trust company building, at the corner of Wall and Nassau streets, is 539 feet high and has thirty-nine stories. The Times building, at Forty-second street and Broadway, is 419 feet high and has twenty-eight stories. — Christian Herald.
